The History and Current State of Community Associations in Florida

When: Tuesday, April 11, 2017

Where: Vero Beach Community Center, 2266 14th Avenue Vero

Time: Coffee & Doughnuts 9:00 AM - Meeting 9:30 AM

We are honored to have Ryan Scarpa speak at this month's meeting. Mr. Scarpa is a partner at Block & Scarpa, a boutique law firm located in Vero Beach, FL, operating since 1979. Mr. Scarpa focuses his practice on community association law and real estate transactions. Mr. Scarpa has represented hundreds of associations, developers, and contractors throughout the State of Florida, and he is consistently retained to provide legal advice concerning condominium and HOA issues, development issues, the drafting and interpretation of governing documents, construction planning and disputes, and complex residential and commercial transactions.

Ryan's practice provides a rare benefit to clients in that he is able to apply his transactional knowledge and experience when representing clients in the courtroom in the event of a dispute, an uncommon quality possessed by transactional lawyers. Ryan has successfully litigated and resolved disputes involving restrictive covenants, liens, breach of contract matters, and foreclosure matters.

Ryan firmly believes in the value and quality lifestyle that Vero Beach and the Treasure Coast offer, and has dynamically participated in real estate investments and development projects throughout the area. In his free time Ryan enjoys traveling, surfing and physical fitness.
